

The gradual increase in captioning to date has been very appreciated. I am now more "clued-in" on many of life's events. From the campaigning to weather to documentaries to entertainment, I feel more "included" in society. I grew up watching The Andy Griffith Show not understanding dialogue, just laughing at Barney Fife. Now I can follow the dialogue. Please ensure that this positive progress continues.